ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama in July 2015, bringing with him 30 years of experience in higher education. He had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and department head of mechanical engineering. During this time, he also founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center, the Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, which continues to thrive today.

Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University to develop a strategic plan that maps out the aspirations of the campus for the next five years and beyond. Renewing UA's commitment to its students and the campus community, and with a focus on significantly increasing investments in faculty and research, the plan promises to improve the quality of life for citizens across our state, nation and world. Already, several of the plan's initiatives are underway, with multiple research institutes formed on campus, creating an interdisciplinary approach to address national and worldwide challenges in the areas of water, transportation and lifespan research.

Prior to returning to UA as president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. Before his time at LSU, he served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. Under his leadership, both institutions opened new facilities and saw great success in student recruitment and retention.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's degree and doctorate in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

It was also at Texas A&M that he met and fell in love with his wife, Susan. They have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen, and they are the proud grandparents to one granddaughter.

GREG BYRNE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

One of the most acclaimed and respected administrators in collegiate athletics, Greg Byrne was formally introduced as The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics on January 19, 2017, and officially began his tenure leading the department on March 1.

Byrne's role at Alabama is his third venture at the helm of a major collegiate athletics program. Prior to coming to Alabama, Byrne was Vice President for Athletics at the University of Arizona from 2010-17 and was Director of Athletics at Mississippi State University from 2008-10. With more than 20 years of experience as an athletics administrator, Byrne has fashioned an impressive administrative career highlighted by consistent success in fundraising, innovative strategies and competitive success with a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been consistently more impactful and successful with each step up the administrative ladder. As a fundraiser, he has been directly involved in raising more than $200 million in gifts during his career. As a leader of competitive athletics programs, he has fostered major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both programs he has led. A proponent of developing student-athletes into productive people after college, Byrne has led programs that have attained academic success at levels not reached prior to his tenure.

He also has deep experience working in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), having spent 2002 to 2005 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising before a four-year stint at Mississippi State (2006-10). From 2006-08, Byrne served as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU before becoming Director of Athletics.

Under Byrne's leadership, Arizona Athletics underwent more than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities. That work was highlighted by the $72 million Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the addition of two video boards in Arizona Stadium (football), and a new scoreboard in the McKale Center (basketball). Additionally, Byrne oversaw a $30 million renovation of the McKale Center, a project that included upgraded locker rooms, seating, restrooms, concessions, enhanced lighting and a new playing floor.

At Mississippi State, where he was the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level, Byrne oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen.

As the son of veteran athletics administrator Bill Byrne, one of the nation's most prominent college sports administrators with 30 years of experience as an Athletics Director, Greg Byrne has been around the enterprise of running successful athletic programs for most of his life.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

From the architecture to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama. With more than 200 academic majors, outstanding honors programs and a championship athletic tradition, UA offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Our undergraduate, graduate and professional programs give students the opportunity to interact with nationally ranked faculty and our distance learning programs offer learning that fits your life.

Life on the UA campus is defined by opportunities. Students who want to get involved can join one of more than 500 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, volunteer in the community, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

Students, faculty, staff and visitors can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. UA's fine museums house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

The Ferguson Center, UA's student union, was renovated and expanded in 2014, providing more space for student activities and a larger food court and Supply Store. The new Fresh Food Company as well as Lakeside and Burke dining halls offer a wide variety of food service options.

The Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space. An additional recreation and student center is conveniently located for residential students between the Presidential 1 and II residence halls.

Whatever your interests, you will find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

FOSTER AUDITORIUM

HOME OF THE ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The University of Alabama Athletics Department renovated and expanded Foster Auditorium to create a new home for the Crimson Tide's volleyball and women's basketball programs, as the teams began competing again in Foster Auditorium in 2011.

The restoration of the venerable three-story building was completed in January of 2011 in time for a women's basketball game between Alabama and Florida on Feb. 13, when the Tide defeated the Gators, 64-59. In their first return match to Foster Auditorium, the Alabama women's volleyball team posted a 3-0 (25-12, 25-15, 25-15) victory over Alabama State in the Hampton Inn Bama Bash on Aug. 26, 2011.

The remodel of the facility included refurbishing the arena portion of the building with new seating both on the floor level and on the second level overlooking the court, creating an impressive competitive atmosphere for both sports.

"From the outside, Foster is a magnificent building," head women's volleyball coach Ed Allen said. "Once you get to the inside, you see the quality at which the building was renovated, with the ability to create an intimate environment. Everything was done first-class."

The renovation also included suites for both programs to house locker rooms, team areas, meeting and video rooms, and coaches offices. A weight room and athletics training facilities were also included in the project.

"Foster Auditorium is one of the best volleyball facilities in the country," Allen said. "It provides a huge impact on our ability to attract the kind of athletes we expect to get at Alabama. For them to see the atmosphere they're going to play in and how they are going to be taken care of makes the facility vital to our success. The fact that we don't have to leave the arena to lift weights, practice or play will be enticing to future players at Alabama."

Originally built in 1939, Foster Auditorium was named in 1942 for Richard Clarke Foster, president of The University of Alabama from 1937-41. It was the largest and most expensive of 14 buildings added to campus between 1936 and 1939, using funds from the Public Works Administration.

In its original capacity, Foster served as home for intramural sports, graduations, concerts, lectures and campus meetings. It also served as the home of several varsity athletic programs over the years, including the men's basketball team from 1939-68, women's basketball, which played a few games in Foster in their inaugural season in 1975, and gymnastics from 1975-84.

In the early years of the Alabama's volleyball program, the team practiced and competed in Foster. The women's volleyball program, which began in 1974, played their first 15 seasons (1974-81 and 1989-95) in Foster Auditorium. The program was discontinued from 1982-88. The volleyball program made the move away from Foster before the 1996 season, playing in the main arena of Coleman Coliseum from 1996-99. Beginning with the 2000 campaign, volleyball competed in the Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension (CAVE) for 11 seasons, before returning to Foster Auditorium in 2011.

The University of Alabama women's athletic program, including coaches and administrative offices, was located in Foster during the 1970s through the early 1980s.

"With the way Foster is designed, it's going to create a lot of energy for the team and an atmosphere that fans will want to come back to," Allen said. "Playing in an intimate environment is going to be a huge home-court advantage for us and it provides an opportunity to springboard the program. Additionally, it has all the bells and whistles that should help attract top-notch recruits. It was a huge selling point in my decision to come to Alabama."

ALLEN

Head Coach

BALL STATE, 1988

Ed Allen enters his seventh season as the head women's volleyball coach at The University of Alabama in 2017. Allen was named the head women's volleyball coach at the Capstone on Jan. 10, 2011, after being named the 2010 Conference USA Coach of the Year and the 2010 AVCA Midwest Regional Coach of the Year at the University of Tulsa.

Allen, the fourth head coach in the history of the Alabama volleyball program, has led the Crimson Tide to a 116-78 overall record in his time at the Capstone. He has quickly built Alabama into a contender, earning the program's first winning season in four years in 2012 with 18 wins, the most since 2005. He improved even further on that mark in his third season, guiding Alabama to a 24-10 record in 2013 and its first NCAA tournament appearance since 2007. The 24 wins were the most for the Tide since 1995 and the NCAA Tournament berth was the fourth in school history and the first under Allen. His stellar 2013 campaign helped earn him AVCA South Region Coach of the Year honors. In 2014, he improved on that mark with a 26-8 record, setting a new school record for wins in a single season. The stellar year was capped by a return trip to the NCAA tournament, marking the first back-to-back postseason appearances for Alabama since 2006-07. There, Alabama opened play against Samford with a five-set win, the Tide's first ever NCAA tournament victory. A 20-11 record in 2016 made it the third 20-win season in four years, the first such stretch in program history.

A winner at every level of coaching, Allen owns a career record of 610-261 (.700) in his 26th season as a head coach in 2017. The 2016 season was the 24th winning season for Allen in his 25 years as a head coach.

In 2016, senior Krystal Rivers capped her Crimson Tide career with a record-setting season, becoming the program's all-time kills leader with 2,148. She was named the SEC Player of the Year and the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the first Player of the Year honoree in program history and the first in SEC history to earn both awards in the same season. She also became the school's first four-time All-American and just its second two-time Academic All-American.

In 2015, senior setter Sierra Wilson became the first two-time Academic All-American in program history, earning first team honors for the second consecutive season. Additionally, Wilson set a new career assists record at Alabama, breaking the old record that had stood since 2007. Teammates Rivers and Kat Hutson earned Honorable Mention AVCA All-America honors, marking the third straight season with multiple All-Americans for Alabama.

Rivers became the first Tide player to earn AVCA Third Team All-America honors in 2014, as she was joined by honorable mention honorees Wilson and Hutson for a program-best three All-America nods. Additionally, Rivers and Wilson garnered CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-America accolades, becoming the first teammates in Alabama history to win the award in the same season. No other school in the SEC had any Academic All-Americans in 2014.

During the 2013 season, Rivers, Wilson and Brittany Thomas were all named to the AVCA All-South Region team, while Rivers was also named to the All-SEC team and Freshman All-SEC team. Additionally, Rivers and Thomas combined for five SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

Allen is a six-time conference coach of the year award winner, while guiding his teams to five regular-season titles, four conference tournament titles, and the NCAA postseason six times. He has coached 63 all-conference performers and eight conference player of the year selections.

In his final season at Tulsa (2010), Allen guided the Golden Hurricane to a school-record 31 wins, including a 20-0 record in Conference USA action. The 20 conference wins also set a school mark, and he led Tulsa to the program's first NCAA tournament victory, a 3-0 upset win over 13th-seeded LSU. Tulsa captured the 2010 C-USA regular-season title for the second time in school history, the first coming in 2006 (Allen's first year with the program). He led Tulsa to a 31-3 campaign and a second-round finish in the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Over five seasons at Tulsa, Allen led his team to at least 20 wins each year and compiled an overall record of 133-37 (.782), with a 65-19 (.774) conference mark. He became the fastest Golden Hurricane coach to reach 100 wins since the program began in 1976, accumulating more wins in the first five seasons than any other coach in the history of the program.

Tulsa volleyball players combined for 24 all-conference selections during Allen's tenure, including nine first-team selections, two player of the year honorees, three setter of the year honorees, and one freshman of the year. Tyler Henderson was named the 2010 C-USA Player of the Year and garnered her second straight AVCA All-America selection. Henderson was the second All-American for Tulsa to be coached by Allen. The other was setter Julia Silva, a former assistant coach at Alabama, who was a three-time AVCA honorable mention All-American and a two-time C-USA Setter of the Year.

His first squad at Tulsa won the 2006 C-USA regular-season title, while his second won the 2007 C-USA postseason tournament crown, earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth. He was named the Conference USA Coach of the Year twice, first in 2006 and again in 2010.

Prior to Tulsa, Allen spent three seasons (2003-05) as the head volleyball coach at Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C. During his tenure, Allen's teams compiled an overall 94-18 record, a 39-3 conference mark, won three South Atlantic Conference Championships, two conference tournament titles and qualified for the NCAA Division II National Tournament twice. At Presbyterian, Allen coached two All-Americans, three conference players of the year, two conference tournament MVPs, one freshman of the year, 12 all-conference players and five all-region selections.

Allen served on the NCAA Division II Head Coaches Committee, NCAA Division II South Region Poll Committee and NCAA Division II South Region Player Committee while at Presbyterian.

During an 11-year tenure as the head volleyball coach at Anderson University in Anderson, Ind., Allen built the program into one of the nation's premier NCAA Division III squads. His teams compiled a program-record 11 straight winning seasons, including nine 20-win seasons, won 17 tournament titles, and posted a 267-128 (.676) record. He coached 34 all-conference, 23 all-tournament and two conference players of the year during his time with the Ravens.

Allen also served as assistant director of athletics at Anderson University for seven years and was responsible for facility management. In five of his final six years at Anderson, Allen's teams earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and in each of his 11 years as head coach at Anderson the team compiled at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA. He also coached two academic All-Americans and four academic all-region selections at Anderson.

Prior to moving to the collegiate level, Allen was an assistant volleyball coach at Pendleton Heights (Ind.) High School for three years (1989-91) and also had a two-year mark of 33-6 as the junior varsity coach.

Allen earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1988 and his master's degree in athletic administration in 1996, both from Ball State University. He is also a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

Allen and his wife Karis have three sons: Drake, Payton and Nolan.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS SHELLY DYCHE

SHELLY DYCHE

Director of Operations 3rd Year
KANSAS, 1984

Shelly Dyche enters her first season as Alabama volleyball's director of operations after serving the past two seasons as an assistant coach.

Her arrival at Alabama in 2015 reunited her with former colleague and current Alabama head coach Ed Allen, as the two previously coached together for two seasons at Anderson University in Anderson, Ind.

"It's a little bit of a dream come true to come here and work with Coach Allen again," said Dyche. "This environment makes it very exciting. I have a passion for the game of volleyball and have dreamed about the opportunity to get back into it at this level and I can't think of a better place to be able to do that than Alabama."

Dyche assisted Allen in his first two seasons at Anderson University in 1992-93. There, they helped set the stage for what would be a successful 11-year run for Allen. Following her stint at Anderson, Dyche started in 1996 as a high school volleyball coach and K-6 physical education teacher in the Lewis Palmer School District in Monument, Colo., and spent 19 years at that position. She has been involved with coaching volleyball at various levels for over 30 years.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics in Volleyball

The Southeastern Conference continues to flourish as a solid and competitive league in women's collegiate volleyball and has made stellar contributions in the sport.

The conference has sent at least two SEC teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season the last 27 years.

The SEC had a team reach the Final Four seven of the 10 seasons in the 1990s, with the league having a team advance to the regional final nine of those 10 seasons.

Since 2000, the SEC has had a team reach the Final Four three times and the regional final seven times.

Florida and Missouri each earned a share of the 2016 SEC regular-season championship with a conference record of 16-2, marking the first time two teams shared the league title since 2004.

For the second consecutive year, Florida, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas A&M represented the league in the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship. At least three SEC teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season since 2004.

Four SEC student-athletes earned AVCA All-America honors in 2016, while 11 SEC volleyball players received Honorable Mention All-America honors. The SEC has boasted at least three AVCA All-America selections each year for eight consecutive seasons.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference with volleyball. The addition of Missouri and Texas A&M to the league in 2012 increased the number of SEC institutions sponsoring volleyball to 13.

Extensive coverage of Southeastern Conference volleyball continued for the third year on SEC Network. SEC Network +, the digital extension of SEC Network available on WatchESPN, featured more than 250 matchups, with an additional 80 volleyball matches slated for the SEC Network television channel and ESPNU. On Wednesdays, ESPNU aired 10 consecutive weeks of SEC Volleyball, while the SEC Network aired a match the same night, creating a weekly double-header of SEC volleyball across national television networks.

Notes

- Four teams from the SEC represented the league in the 2016 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship. It marked the 27th consecutive season in which the SEC has featured at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament.

ALABAMA ALL-AMERICANS

NINA FOSTER VOLLEYBALL MAGAZINE HONORABLE MENTION 1995

Nina Foster is remembered as one of the greatest volleyball players in the program's history, after back-to-back stellar performances during the 1994-95 seasons. The middle blocker became the first Crimson Tide player to earn honorable mention All-America status and AVCA All-District honors. She led the nation in blocks per game (1.90) and was second in the nation in kills per game (6.02) in 1994. During her tenure at the Capstone, Foster led the conference in blocks per game and kills per game. Foster also can be found in numerous categories in the Alabama record books. She ranks second all-time for solo blocks with 115, eighth in block assists with 240 and eighth in kills with 1,289. Foster holds the Tide record for highest career hitting percentage, at .3402.

ERIN HEFFNER AVCA HONORABLE MENTION 2003 & 2004

Hailing from Ft. Wayne, Ind., Erin Heffner became the second player in Alabama volleyball history named honorable mention All-America and was the first Crimson Tide volleyballer to be honored by the AVCA. Heffner also was the first Alabama player to earn the honor twice. Heffner led the SEC in kills per game in 2003 and 2004 and finished ninth in the nation in 2004 with 5.55 kills per game. The two-time AVCA All-District selection also garnered AVCA South District Freshman of the Year accolades in 2001. One of the most successful players to wear the crimson and white, Heffner can be found on every career record list except assists and is the all-time kills leader with 2,090.

CRYSTAL HUDSON AVCA HONORABLE MENTION 2006 & 2007

Crystal Hudson, a Hueytown native, is one of the greatest middle blockers in Tide history. Hudson led her team to the first, second and third NCAA Tournament berths in program history. In 2006, she led the team with 452 kills and 125 blocks. Hudson also posted an .824 hitting percentage against Kentucky, placing her fifth in the individual match records for hitting percentage. Hudson also held the Alabama record in that category after pulling in a .917 hitting percentage against Oklahoma in 2005. The AVCA South Region team selection became the second player in Alabama history to earn AVCA honorable mention All-America honors. Hudson also was selected to the All-SEC first team as a junior and senior.

BROOKS WEBSTER AVCA HONORABLE MENTION 2008

Following her stellar junior campaign in 2008, Baltimore native Brooks Webster was honored with AVCA honorable mention All-America recognition, becoming the fourth player in Alabama history to achieve this status. In addition to her national award, Webster was recognized on the All-SEC first team. She led the Crimson Tide with 424 kills in 2008, after collecting 12 double-doubles and rattling off 20-plus kills on five occasions. Webster led the conference in kills with an average of 4.17 per set against SEC opponents and notched a career-best 26 kills in Alabama's win at Georgia. On the defensive end, Webster scooped up 287 digs, good for second on the team. At the net, she racked up 45 blocks with 17 of those solo. Webster entered the Tide career record books during her junior season in three categories and now ranks seventh in total attacks and 10th in solo blocks.

KRYSTAL RIVERS AVCA HONORABLE MENTION 2013, 2015, 2016 THIRD TEAM 2014

After redshirting as a freshman in 2012, Birmingham native Krystal Rivers had a breakout debut season in 2013, leading the team with 435 kills and a .404 hitting percentage, the latter setting a new single-season school record.
